WASHINGTON.

What Was Done in Congress Yesterday.

THE LOUISIANA CASE AGAIN UNDER DISCUSSION.

HOW SPEECHES ARE SENT FROM THE COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE.

Senate.

WASHINGTON April 24.—The chair held before the senate a communication from the secretary of war, enclosing a draft of a bill in regard to the jurisdiction of court martial. Also a letter from the treasurer of the United States transmitting his accounts with the post office department, referred.

Mr. Edmunds, from the judiciary committee reported without amendment the same bill passed by the committee, and for creating a court for investigating and dispensing certain money received into the treasury under an order made by the tribunal of arbitration, constituted by the virtue of the first article of the treaty concluded at Washington, May 2, 1873, between the United States of America and the Queen of Great Britain. Placed

On motion of Mr. Sergeant the vote by which the house bill to amend the 35th section of the postage act of 1872, which was postponed a day, was re-called and the bill placed on the calendar.

The morning having expired, the senate resumed consideration of the Louisiana case again, and voted to sustain the bill.

Mr. Morrison moved that one thousand extra copies of the bill be printed. Referred. Mr. Merrill of Maine called up the house bill to render available certain balances of unexpended appropriations for the payment of bounty money to colored soldiers and sailors. Passed.

The senate then went into executive session and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The usual annual discussion over the appropriations for the agricultural department occupied several hours and covered the familiar range of subjects, such as the worthlessness or local inappropriateness of the seeds furnished, applying to the northwest of such states as Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, and California, and the like.

Mr. Randall introduced a bill to provide for a commissioner on the subject of postal telegraphy. Referred.

Windham presented a report of the committee on transportation and made a lengthy speech of explanation and advocacy thereof.

Sharswood moved that one thousand extra copies of the bill be printed. Referred.

Mr. Merrill of Maine called up the house bill to render available certain balances of unexpended appropriations for the payment of bounty money to colored soldiers and sailors. Passed.

The senate then went into executive session and soon after adjourned until Monday.

ARKANSAS.

The Legislature to Meet on May 11.

Brooks Erecting Powder Magazines.

GOVERNOR BAXTER TO THE PRESIDENT.

All the People want is Peace.

LITTLE ROCK, April 24.—Negotiations have been going on to-day between the two hostile parties to the effect that both shall retreat their forces except a guard, until a competent tribunal settles the question as to the governorship.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Governor Baxter has convened the legislature for that purpose and proposes to have the matter referred back to the people for final settlement. Mr. Brooks holds that Baxter has no power to call the legislature together. The latter is to-day engaged in erecting and a powder magazine in the rear of the State house.

NEW BARACADES

GONE HOME.

Some of his troops have gone home. Gov. Baxter has stopped sending his men home. Both forces as to numbers are now pretty nearly equally divided. Baxter's are nearly all white men and Brooks' are mostly colored.

Gov. Baxter to-day sent the following telegram to the president:

U. S. GRANT, President of the United States.—In accordance with my correspondence with you by telegraph, I have convened the legislature for the 11th day of May. I have sent home part of my forces and would willingly send the balance, except a small body guard, but that Brooks retains his whole force and daily receives reinforcements. All the people want is peace to be restored and the legislature protected in the performance of their legitimate business.

[Signed] ELIASA BAXTER, Governor of Arkansas.

NOV. 20, 1873.

A CONTRADICTION.

Lieutenant Cushman, of the 16th infantry, who returned from Memphis this morning, authorizes and requests a confirmation of the statement telegraphed from Memphis on Wednesday last that he went to Memphis in order to telegraph to the president because of the violent partisan feeling in the telegraph office at Little Rock. He says he made no such statement, his business to Memphis being wholly disconnected with the telegraph office at this place. In reference to Col. Ross being fired on by Baxter's men he states that he gave that on common rumor, not upon anything he saw.

Mr. Myers introduced a bill to repeal the second section of the act of July 1872, which reduces the duties on certain imported articles 10 per cent. Referred. House then adjourned.

Everything quiet to-night.

THE FLOOD.

Condition of Affairs in the Overflowed Region.

TRAINS DELAYED--NO MAIIS, ETC.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—A letter from a planter in Carroll Parish says:

"From the overflow there will be twenty plantations in this parish that will make no cotton at all—several places that may make half-crops and twenty others that are good for full crops. The water from Bonne Corre and the McCollum crossways have overflowed the Grand Point settlement and St. James Parish
